CHARLES HUMMEL IS KILLED IN CANTON RAILROAD YARDS

CLOUDS CONCEAL THE SOLAR ECLIPSE HERE

An overcast sky effectively concealed the partial eclipse of the sun Saturday morning from the gaze of Coshocton folks, but the effect of the phenomenon was plainly perceptible in the partial darkness that enshrouded the city and county from early morning till 10 o'clock.

The eclipse began at 7:32 and ended at 10:12 a. m., reaching its maximum at 8:46. It was an annual eclipse, the first since 1908 to be seen in the United States. There will not be another until 1931. The annual phase in which the whole sun is obscured except a ring, or annulus, was visible only in Louisiana and Texas. It was caused by the interposition of the moon between the earth and sun. The moon appeared as a huge black ball moving across the sun.

Warren S. Stone, president of the Plumb plan league, and grand chief of the engineers, announced that the Plumb plan would be taken up at the meeting but, declined to say whether any definite plan of campaign had been mapped out.

SAYS WIFE SAT UP AT NIGHT TRYING TO COMPOSE SONGS

The answer and cross petition of Jasper A. Counts has been filed in the divorce case recently started by Christena Counts. He alleges that shortly after their marriage they went to housekeeping at Spencerville, Ohio, where he was employed in the oil fields at $5 per day. He says that in March, 1905, his wife abandoned him and to avoid a separation he followed her to Coshocton, later bringing the household goods. He says he found it difficult to find employment here at that time and went to Illinois and got work in the oil fields. He says after he came back his wife was persuaded by her people to take up her residence with them (they were occupying a double house). They moved to north Fifteenth-st. but she did not like the house and he purchased a house on Lynn-st. for $500 on which there is a mortgage for $430.

Counts says his wife would sit up until late in the night trying to compose songs for publication but they were never published. He says she would lie in bed in the daytime and would not cook the meals or get his dinner bucket ready. He alleges that last August he hired John Medley to take him to the country where he picked seven gallons of blackberries and brot them home to can, also getting 125 pounds of sugar. He says his wife first refused to can the berries but later did "muss most of them up, canning them in such a way that no one can eat them." He says she left home August 3 going to her people in Coshocton and staying two weeks, leaving the children with him. He alleges that when he remonstrated with her she threw dishes at him. He says she is an unfit person to have the children and asks that the older ones be given to him and that his wife be restrained from interfering with him. He also asks divorce. L. N. Staats is his attorney.

It is believed the threatened shut down of industry thruout the state will now be averted and normal coal production be reached soon.

WAGE DEADLOCK IS HOPELESS

PICKING THE GOAT IN GERMANY

The German parliamentary tribunal, formed, in plain language, to "pick the goat" for Germany's defeat in the war, is now in constant session. All diplomats, military heads and civilian leaders are being examined by the tribunal. The reason for the failure of the early peace overtures made by Germany is one of the phases of the conflict being investigated. Among the leading figures at the session are Prof. Bernhard Dernburg, leader of the German propaganda in the U. S.; Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, former German chancellor; Count Von Bernstorff, former ambassador to the U. S.; Dr. Cohn, leader of the independent Socialists in the Reichstag and one of the chief questioners, and Dr. Sinsheimer, who quizzed Von Bernstorff regarding President Wilson's peace work.

DONAHEY HAS A SCHEME TO GET TAX ON MONEYS

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 22.—Instead of having citizens return their bank deposits for taxation, State Auditor Donahey has advised the joint executive committee on taxation that each bank should be required to certify the average annual deposit of each patron. Donahey said that the banks could pay the tax also and deduct it from the individuals account.

If the proposed state income tax, which will yield about $8,000,000 in revenue, is adopted, the chances are that more than the constitutional requirement of fifty per cent of the revenue will be allowed for municipalities and townships in which it originates. ## WESLEYAN CO-ED SHOT BY A RIVAL AT CHAPEL

JEALOUSY IS CAUSE

Miss Blanche Davidson, 19,
Confesses She Wounded
Miss Gladys Racey

DELaware, O., Nov. 22.—Staid Ohio Wesleyan college today thrilled with the details of the most sensational love "triangle" case in its history which was climaxed today by the confession of Blanche Davidson, 19, freshman co-ed that actuated by jealousy she fired the mystery shot which late yesterday seriously wounded Gladys Racey as she ascended the stairway of Gray's chapel.

The confession came according to the police shortly before noon today at the police station following a long grilling. The girl at first defiant, became tearful and finally told the officers her story.

A revolver wrapped in a woman's stocking found near the scene of the shooting yesterday gave the police the clue which led them to suspect Miss Davidson.

According to the police the Davidson girl told them she had carried the revolver for several days awaiting an opportunity to "get" Miss Racey, whom she declared as "my rival."

According to the confession the third figure in the "love triangle" is T. R. Alexander, Delaware, a well known young student at Ohio State university, whose name was given to the police, they said.

The girl told the officials that both herself and Miss Racey had "found favor in his eyes" but that lately his attention had been showered on Miss Racey.

The Davidson girl stated she had carried the revolver for several days awaiting an opportunity to "get" her rival.

Friday she cut the Spanish class, which both girls attended, and awaited in the hallway until the Racey girl left the class room. She then followed her up the stairs, shooting when the landing was reached. The girl is being held at police station where her confession was made after a severe grilling. She will be charged with shooting with intent to kill.

The young girl is a daughter of C. M. Davidson, residing south of this city. She is a graduate of the Delaware high school. The revolver she confessed she had obtained from a workman employed at the girls' industrial home, where she was employed during the last summer as a clerk. The Racey girl, whose name is at Caldwell, passed a good night at the hospital and is believed to be out of danger.

GREEKS FACE TWO CHARGES; ONE IN JAIL

Theodore and William Megas, of the Empress restaurant, were given hearings Saturday morning in Squire Abbott's court on charges filed by Charles McDonald, state inspector, for working Harry Megas, who is less than 16 years old, longer than the state laws permit, and for working Marie Demuth more than 50 hours a week. Both men waived examination and asked to be bound over to the grand jury. Their bonds were fixed at $300, signed by Pete Revells.

Following the first charge they were given a hearing for resisting an officer in performance of his duty. They waived examination and asked to be bound over to the grand jury. Their bond was fixed at $500. William Megas was released when Pete Revells also signed his bond. Theodore was taken back to the county jail.

An amusing incident following the hearing was verbal battle between C. Homer Durand, attorney for the Megas brothers and Deputy Sheriff Ernest Darr. Durand cautioned his client, Theodore Megas, to accompany the officer peacefully and "no more rough stuff." Darr assured Durand he would "be good, and no more rough stuff" to which Durand took exception.

GOVERNMENT IS READY TO STEP IN TUESDAY IF IT'S NECESSARY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.

—Peace in the coal wage controversy must come by government action. This was apparent today as both the miners and the operators held fast to their positions and the deadlock seemed unbreakable.

The operators and miners have until next Tuesday to determine whether they will settle their troubles themselves or shall allow the government to step in. If the controversy is not settled by next Tuesday when President Wilson's cabinet meets, drastic action is sure to follow.

Secretary of Labor Wilson was expected today to make another effort to secure a peaceful settlement.

Both camps were having difficulties today maintaining peace within their own folds. Among the miners there were some of the more radical who wanted to break off negotiations and return to their homes, and among the operators there were those who declared that further negotiations were futile.

There was a general impression, however, that the stout statements of both sides that they would yield no further were not sincere, but, were merely efforts to force the other side to yield.

The operators are openly worried over state action over the mines and the miners are not entirely pleased with it.

While there were hopes that a compromise might be reached today it was generally believed that both sides would stick until the last moment and would not yield until the intervention of the government seemed momentarily imminent.

SCOOPS A WALLET WITH $3,350 FROM BOTTOM OF RIVER

PITTSBURG, Nov. 22.—Chas. Dilks, sand comber and a resident of McKees Rocks is having the time of his life. A hard worker on the river winter and summer, Dilks had his windfall yesterday when his little sand digger brought up from the bottom of the Ohio river exactly $3,350 in wet and sticky greenbacks.

Dilks pushed his digger out into the back channel at the foot of Neville Island and began digging sand for a cement contractor. When the first bucket came up on top there lay a wallet which proved to be one and well filled. His eyes bulged as each bill was then smoothed out, cleaned and counted. Everything in shipshape, Dilks, after "rewarding" his helper, jumped into his yawl and rowed ashore, saying he was "in for a time."

CONFISCATION IN ENGLAND.
From time to time we get a bit of news from Europe which is like a lightning flash, revealing an extraordinary state of affairs there. Then the curtain falls again, leaving us to wonder whether things are really in such a state as isolated incidents seem to imply.

The most recent of these happenings is the agitation in England for confiscation by the government of all war fortunes. The movement is being supported by influential men; Lord Beaverbrook has urged it in the Express; Lord Northcliffe has placed the powerful influence of the Times behind it. That desperate remedies are in order one realizes when it is recalled that the government's daily expenses are just about twice as much as the government's daily revenue from all sources. The cry for national economy is heard on every hand, and Lloyd George with a flourish promises that he will bring it about; but nobody seems able to achieve a beginning. Military expenses are hardly any smaller than they were during the war; one hears of anti-aircraft guns still being installed, and, of course, manned by full crews. It is charged that the War Office has more employees than six months ago, and Lloyd George predicted a few days since that the government subsidy which has held down the price of bread must soon be re-

If this action were followed by the removal of the eight-dollar unemployment benefits now being paid to many hundreds of thousands, the result would be most serious. It is this situation which has brot about the proposal for confiscation of war fortunes. A man's wealth in 1914 would be compared with his wealth today; if the increase is attributable "directly or indirectly" to the war the state would confiscate it. Some $5,000,000,000 would be secured this way, it is believed. This is the expropriation of capital in a form which has never been seen in any state save Russia. It is far more drastic than poor Italy's "forced loan," which she has been obliged to lay on the shelf because of the storm of protest from her wealthy classes. That it should be suggested seriously in England by more or less responsible leaders of the Northcliffe type shows that behind the scenes powerful forces must be at work—forces which the government is obviously attempting to anticipate by its present course.

Indication is that if it will be a $40,000 gate at which O'Dowd will receive a flat $10,000.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

Facts From The Field Of Science

The constitution of the United States requires that a census of the United States be taken every 10 years. It is by this means that the apportionment of members of the house of representatives is made as to states.
The bureau of the census is a part of the department of commerce. It was established as a permanent bureau in 1902. Prior to that time the census work was done by a temporary organization known as the census office.
A census of the country's manufacturers was made for the first time in 1910. Under the present law a manufacturers census is to be taken in connection with the fourteenth decennial census and every two years thereafter.
The sixth decennial census, taken in 1840, was the first one to cover agricultural statistics, now one of the most important parts of the entire census.
United States marshals acted as enumerators at the first nine decennial censuses. Each marshal had a number of assistants as were necessary to properly cover his allotted territory.
About 650 people were engaged in taking the first census of the United States. The 1920 census will require the services of 90,000.
The statistics of the first census of the United States were published in one small volume consisting of 56 pages. The statistics of the 1910 census required 12 volumes having an aggregate of more than 40,000 pages.
There were 6,261,592 farms reported at the last decennial census, valued at more than 10 billions of dollars. The 1920 census is expected to show more than 70,000,000 farms.
The census bureau prints a special supplement for each state in the union containing all the census figures relating to the state in question.
Congress extended the scope of the approaching 1920 census by providing that a census of forestry and forest products should be taken. These subjects were never specifically covered by any past census act.
In 1914, the year the last manufacturers census was taken, there were 275,000 manufacturing establishments reported. The census bureau expects about 300,000 establishments to be listed in 1920.
The statistics gathered by the census bureau in regard to farms are used extensively by the department of agriculture in its work of aiding farmers.

PAY HOMAGE TO ROOSEVELT

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Nov. 22. Accompanied by his personal suite and Viscount Grey, the British Ambassador, the prince paid homage to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt here today.
The prince and his party motored from New York to the Roosevelt grave. While members of the party stood with bared heads, the young prince reverently placed a big laurel wreath on the mound.
Lieut. Theodore Roosevelt acted as host to the royal visitor. He met the party at the entrance to the grounds. Several thousand persons lined the streets of the village and cheered the youthful prince as he motored thru. Most of the crowd were women and many of them waved the Union Jack.
The prince again wore muff. Following the brief and simple ceremony at the grave, the prince and his party motored to Piping Rock club where luncheon was served. Following the luncheon the party motored back to New York where this afternoon the prince was to act as host to more than 1,000 New York school children on the British Battleship Renova.

PARIS, Nov. 22. Representatives of Poland in Paris today expressed the opinion that Premier Paderewski would refuse to sign the agreement reached by the allies giving Poland Eastern Galicia for 25 years. The Poles believe that Premier Paderewski will demand the permanent occupation of Galician territory.

HARVARD A FAVORITE
BOSTON, Nov. 22. Harvard goes to the post a slight favorite over Yale in their annual football battle in the stadium this afternoon, but the margin of favor is so thin as to be almost and stinct.
"An even money bet and flip of a coin for your choice," just about sums the consensus of opinion of half the huge crowd that will witness the struggle. The other half, being partisan, deeply Crimson partisan, have made the Red team a 10 to 8 favorite.
Harvard's showing against Princeton a 10 to 10 tie is largely responsible for the slight edge of favoritism which the Fisher eleven holds. Yale lost to the Tigers 13 to 6, and the Cambridge adherents have taken this crumb as fairly indicative of the strength of the two elevens.
Against this Yale supporters point out that they, too, would have tied the Tiger, but for a fumbled ball in the closing minutes of play. They also direct attention to the fact that Princeton scored a touchdown against Harvard by straight smashing football, something the Tigers were unable to do against the Blue.
The weatherman was the only pessimistic gink in Boston today.
He held out threats of cloudy weather with a possibility of rain coming later in the day. But the blue sky and fleecy clouds of early morning belied his words.
Yale will send a fighting team into the Stadium this afternoon—a team that fights with the desperation of fear. Already defeated by Princeton, the Blue must retrieve against Harvard or suffer the most disastrous football season since 1898. It has been that long since an Eli team lost to both the Tigers and the Crimson in a single year.
Boston is filled with visitors for the game as the old city has seldom been filled for a sporting event. It is the first big game in three years here, and interest is several degrees past the

STATE ILLINOIS GAME DRAWS 20 THOUSAND PEOPLE

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 22. Twenty thousand football fans are expected to witness the struggle on Ohio field today between the Ohio State and the Illinois eleven in their contest to determine the Western Conference championship. This capacity attendance is predicted despite the canopy of heavy rain clouds which hung over the gridiron this morning.
Ohio State has to win today's game if she is to achieve the championship honors. Both teams are fit.
Ohio's hardest game of the season will be played today. We are going to play our best, declared Chic Harley, Ohio State's captain.
"We will not say that we will defeat the Ohio State. The Buckeye eleven is strong," said Robert Zuppke, Illinois coach.
Coach Zuppke, noting the weather man's prediction of unsettled weather, said his team preferred a dry field because the Illinois eleven were "not good mud larks."
Altho effort was made to obtain straw with which to cover Ohio field last night, the attempt was a failure. Whether the game is to be played in the mud or on a dry field depends on the weather man. It rained here during the night.
In two six hour shifts, Ohio football managers took their turn last night at guarding the field.

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY
Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.
Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.
He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.
If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arcline mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished. It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffling, blowing and hawking, when all those obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.
Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and sniff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.
The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up and be clean and healthy.
Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

HAND PAINTED MICE AND SNAKES ARE
NEWEST FORM OF BEAUTY PATCH FAD

Above, Jerome Erickson, a San Francisco artist, painting a mouse on the chest of a pretty girl, and below Mollie with a serpent painted on her back.

The fad of painting animals, birds and flowers on the necks, shoulders and backs of the wearers of décolleté gowns originated in Paris when the backless bodice made its appearance. It has already reached this country by the looks of the accompanying photographs. Mollie, who is noted for a back that rivals Kitty Gordon's, was the first to have a serpent painted on her back. Jerome Erickson, a San Francisco artist, did the painting. Since painting Mollie's back he has had many other orders. Most of the girls in California are having mice painted on their knees, thighs or chest. Of course this insignia on a girl is to show the world that she is immune from the fear which so long has pervaded the feminine heart.

New IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler

Puts IDEAL HOT WATER HEATING comfort at low cost in cottages, flats, or stores, with or without cellars

The IDEAL-Arcola takes the place of a parlor stove. But a stove wastes much of its heat up the chimney, whereas the IDEAL-Arcola is water-jacketed, and conveys its heat by hot water circulation through pipe-connected AMERICAN Radiators stationed in the adjoining rooms. Every bit of the big volume of heat developed from each pound of fuel is therefore made useful in keeping ALL the rooms uniformly, healthfully warm. There is no coal-waste. The IDEAL-Arcola does not rust out or wear out—will outlast the building—is a genuine, permanent investment!

Shipped complete ready for immediate operation

The beauty of the IDEAL-Arcola method is that no cellar is needed. Everything is on one floor. The Arcola is placed in any room that has a chimney connection. No running to cellar. If there are two or more tenants in the building, each can have his own Arcola and make the temperature to suit his own needs—can make his own climate! If you do not wish at first to heat the entire building, buy a small size IDEAL-Arcola and later on buy extra sections for the IDEAL-Arcola and two or three more radiators to warm more rooms.

Cleanly heating—healthful heating—free from fire risks!

Unlike stoves, there are no coal-gas leaks into the living-rooms. The IDEAL-Arcola delivers the soft, radiant warmth of hot water—not the dry, burnt-out atmosphere of stove heating. There is no fire risk to building—no danger to children—fire lasts for hours! The Arcola burns hard or soft coal, coke, gas, or wood. Brings cost of heating down to the lowest notch—and gives IDEAL comfort.

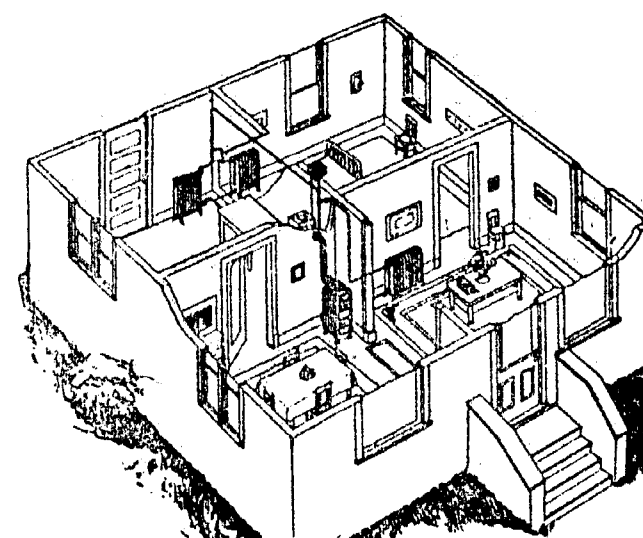

Catalog showing open views of houses, individual flats, stores, offices, etc., with the IDEAL-Arcola Boiler in position will be mailed (free). Write today

6th St. Theatre

Something new and absolutely original in the theatrical line is promised when Robert McLaughlin's drama—"The House Without Children" comes to the Sixth Street Theatre, next Monday and Tuesday evenings.

Everything used in the presentation of this unusual photo-stage play is carried by the organization, even to the booth, lighting system, switchboard and projection machines.

The story is unfolded both on the stage and the screen. Both are combined by the famous transparent-dissolving screen, introduced here for the first time.

A distinguished company of players headed by Miss Violet de Biecar, and Mr. Rolla D. Olin, will appear in person on the stage in several scenes of the story.

A carload of scenery, properties and electrical effects, and a staff of mechanics, projection experts and electricians accompany the organization.

A specially composed musical score will be rendered by an orchestra conducted by Mr. Carlos Edwards.

No matinee performances will be given. Each evening, however, two performances are scheduled commencing at 7:30 and 9:00. Popular prices prevail: Lower floor, 50 cents; balcony 35 cents; tax extra.

WOMEN! DRY CLEAN THINGS AT HOME

Try it! For a few cents you can dry clean everything.

Save five to ten dollars quickly by dry cleaning everything in the home with gasoline that won't be ruined by soap and water—suits, coats, waists, silks, laces, gloves, shoes, furs, draperies, rugs—everything.

Place a gallon or more of gasoline in a dishpan or washboiler, then put in the things to be dry cleaned, then wash them with Solvite soap. Shortly everything comes out looking like new. Nothing fades, shrinks, or wrinkles. Do not attempt to dry clean without Solvite soap. This gasoline soap is the secret of all dry cleaning.

A package of Solvite soap containing directions for home dry cleaning costs a little at any drug store. Dry clean outdoors or away from flame.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 22. Dr. W. O. Thompson will not be allowed to re-sign from the presidency of Ohio State university.

The trustees of the university, after voting to table a motion to accept the resignation, granted Dr. Thompson an extended leave of absence to attend the federal industrial conference at Washington, of which he is a member.

It is reported that no successor to Dr. Thompson had been considered. President Thompson feels that to continue as head of the university would be too great a strain upon his health. He is said to have indicated that he would present his resignation again when the trustees meet in June.

Use for Waste Lands.

Every state in the union has some part of the swamp and wet lands that for the entire country have an aggregate area of 102,800,000 acres—larger than Iowa, Illinois and Indiana combined and three-fourths as large as France. The agricultural value of these lands varies considerably, but specialists of the United States department of agriculture believe that large areas, if properly drained and cleared by public or private co-operation, could be transformed into productive farms.
